Advanced Junior Training Camp (AJTC) will train you in advanced camping skills and strong Christian leadership. It will prepare them for the advanced camps. They will focus on team building through the completion of team projects as patrols. You must be at least 12 years old in order to attend AJTC. Beginning with the JTC graduating class of 2003, this camp will be required before attending the other advanced camps.

Junior Frontier Camp (JFC) will train you in frontier skills. This camp is new for 2004! Trainees will participate in an exciting frontier experience, where they will not only learn frontier skills, but fun and challenging frontier activities. At the conclusion of JFC, each trainee will have completed all the requirements for joining FCF and will be an official member. You must be at least 12 years old in order to attend JFC. Trainees must have attended JTC and one additional camp, and have completed the following merits prior to the start of the camp: ropecraft, firecraft, cooking, compass, lashing, first aid skills, camping, and toolcraft.

Junior Training Trails (JTT) will develop your backpacking and hiking skills. This camp is designed to allow you to hone your compass and map skills, further your knowledge of camping in a wilderness setting, how to prepare special backpacking food on the trail, and additional wilderness survival skills. You must be a JTC graduate and be at least 13 years old in order to attend.

Junior Survival Camp (JSC) will put all of your outdoor skills to the test. You and your survival partner will learn to live off the land, identify and prepare wild plants for food, learn the art of snaring and trapping animals for survival food, wilderness first aid, building a survival shelter, and how to purify water in the wilderness. You must be at least 14 years old and a JTC graduate in order to attend.

Junior Canoe Expedition (JCE) is a specialized camp offer to those who wish to explore the great outdoors by canoe. This is an aquatic camp where swimming skills are a must. You will learn the basics of canoe and boating skills, techniques used for water rescue and survival, all of your camping and compass and map skills will be put to the test. You must be at least 15 years old and a JTC graduate in order to attend.
